FOOD IDEAS

Now can be a great time to visit the cool aisles of the grocery store and take a fresh look at frozen foods. That's because there are more nutritious, delicious, convenient options available than ever before—from fully prepared ready-to-heat-and-eat entrées to side dishes, snacks, juices and desserts. During March Frozen Food Month, you can find special prices and promotions on many frozen favorites. Visit easy-home-meals-dot--com for valuable prize opportunities and recipes from The National Frozen and Refrigerated Foods Association.
