

LIVING WITH ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE

SHE WAS, SHE WAS GOING AWAY. YOU KNOW, THE PERSON WE KNEW WAS, WAS SLIPPING AWAY.

I THINK THE HARDEST THING, FOR ME, WAS TO SEE THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN MY GRANDFATHER AND MY GRANDMOTHER CHANGE—THEY LOVED EACH OTHER SO MUCH, AND, AND SHE TOOK SUCH GOOD CARE OF HIM BUT HE STOPPED KNOWING WHO SHE WAS.

ALL OF OUR MEMORIES AND ALL THOSE LITTLE MOMENTS MAKE US WHO WE ARE. IT TAKES STRENGTH, COMPASSION AND LOVE TO FACE ALZHEIMER'S EVERY DAY.

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING THE ALZHEIMER'S ASSOCIATION. THANK YOU. THANK YOU SO MUCH. THANK YOU.
