

CONTEST CORNER

NASCAR Fans Win Big

(NAPSA)—A new contest gives NASCAR fans the chance to rev up and meet one of racing's hottest stars on the fast track.

A leading contender for the 2005 cup, Jeff Gordon is the youngest driver to win the Daytona 500 three times, as well as the youngest in NASCAR history to reach 50 career wins. In 2001, he won his fourth championship, becoming only the third NASCAR driver to win more than three times.

NASCAR fans may win the chance to meet champion Jeff Gordon by entering a sweepstakes.

Gordon's successes aren't limited to the track, though. He recently teamed with Elizabeth Arden and its classic men's fragrance, Halston Z-14™. The fragrance is formulated from green blends and spices combined with patchouli and sandalwood to create a distinct and masculine scent.

Specially marked boxes of the fragrance will feature game cards. One grand prize game card will send a winner to the 2006 Daytona 500 to meet Gordon.

Complete details are available in stores. The contest runs through August 2005.