Fragrance Gift Giving

(NAPSA)—Don't get caught up in the hustle and the bustle of the holiday shopping. Keep it simple and easy when shopping for the men in your life. Head to the fragrance counter of your favorite store and decide between two very pleasing scents.

Did giving the gift of fragrance to the men in your life just get easier? You decide.

Either of these appealing scents can make a special holiday gift.

If he's active, young at heart, a little daring and loves to wear a clean fresh scent, then Michael Jordan cologne will probably be a scent-sational gift choice.

If he's fond of the classics, refined and masculine, he may be more comfortable wearing Royal Copenhagen cologne or after-shave.

Each scent can also be found in a specially designed gift set containing fragrance, soap and body care products.
