Inside Secrets Of America's Carnivals

(NAPSA)—“Step right up, pitch the ring over the bottle and you’re a winner...Knock three bottles off the barrel...pick any prize you want!”

Not so fast. You have to win the game first and the odds are stacked against you...unless you know the tricks of the trade. Brett Witter's CARNIVAL UNDER-

COVER (Plume, $12.00) is the ultimate insider's look at the world of carnivals and amusement parks.

His undercover account shows you how to increase your chances of winning a prize every time, how to choose the best seat on the roller coaster, the sword swallower's secrets and lots of other things only the “carnys”—the real insiders know.

Learn to understand carny psychology. How to dress right for a day at the amusement park. Discover the secrets of the fair. Learn how to beat the ring toss and shame your friends on the test of strength. Find the best corn dogs and cotton candy. There's even a special section on Disney, and the real lowdown on where to find the best coasters in America—and the most dangerous.

All this and more is in CARNIVAL UNDERCOVER, available where books are sold.
