

National Teacher Of The Year Award Program

(NAPSA)—An annual national award program, sponsored by Chadwick's of Boston, the nation's first and largest off-price fashion catalog, recognizes teachers for their dedication and outstanding accomplishments.

Thousands of teachers receive the recognition they deserve through a national award program. Here is last year's winner, Patricia Tydlacka.

“Our award program recognizes the honorable profession of teaching,” says Kevin Doyle, Executive Vice President, Chadwick's of Boston. “Each of the nominees is dedicated to their career and truly makes a difference in the lives of those that they teach.”

The Chadwick's of Boston Teacher of the Year Award is open to the public; all schoolteachers from kindergarten through 12th grade are eligible to be nominated. To nominate a teacher, simply print or type 250 words or less detailing how the teacher has made a positive impact upon the community, the school, the class and/or the students.

Nominations should be either e-mailed to cobteacher@aol.com or mailed to: Chadwick's of Boston Teacher of the Year Award, 946 Great Plain Avenue, P.O. Box 151, Needham, MA 02492. Be sure to include your name, address and phone number, and the nominated teacher's full name, school name, address and phone number. Additionally, a return address should be clearly marked on the outside of the envelope.

Nominations must be post-marked by July 31, 2001. Winning teachers receive cash and Chadwick's of Boston gift certificates. To learn more, call 781-455-8784.
