Travel Made Easier

(NAPSA)—A gift that makes driving with small children safer or air travel easier could earn you miles of smiles from grateful parents.

Here are two award-winning accessories that may come in handy while traveling with a toddler or baby:

- The Snack & Play Travel Tray is a portable and lightweight minitable that provides a comfortable surface for eating and entertainment. The easy-to-clean travel tray solves the problem of a child repeatedly dropping items, a toy rolling out of reach, or messy food spilling in any direction.

- The Air Play tray table cover set for flight is a double-sided, self-contained activity center that fits snugly over most airline tray tables. It has different features on each side so that a child can play whether the tray is down or stowed in its upright and locked position.
