Hosting The Perfect Playdate Or Kid-Friendly Party

(NAPSA)—Playdates and family parties are the perfect time for children to have fun and develop important social skills. When planning get-togethers, hosts can follow these easy tips to keep the littlest partygoers and their parents happy at the next gathering:

- Plan fun projects to keep children entertained. Buy disposable sippy cups, like the Wash or Toss Cups from PLAYSKOOL, and provide kids with markers and stickers to personalize their own cup. This entertaining project will help keep germs and fights at bay by avoiding cup confusion. Fill the cups with drinks and snacks to keep tots hydrated and happy.

- Have a few common baby care supplies on hand to accommodate parents who may have forgotten them, such as baby wipes, bibs and diapers.

With a little creativity and care, hosts can ensure their little guests have a safe and wonderful time. Having the right products on hand, like those in the PLAYSKOOL Baby Care line available exclusively at CVS/pharmacy, allow parents to enjoy a successful and fun gathering that's free of last-minute worries.
