

Pointers For Parents

Diaper Sweepstakes

(NAPSA)—Changing a diaper is not always a pleasant experience—unless, of course, you are David and Nancy Forth of St. Charles, Missouri. That's because the Forths were instant grand prize winners of a Family Adventure Van complete with HUGGIES SUPREME diapers, Walt Disney videos and Winnie-the-Pooh merchandise.

From left to right: Doreen Norris, Kimberly-Clark Customer Business Manager-U.S. Consumer Sales; Winning family Nancy and David Forth (holding their daughter), Jana Collier, Kimberly-Clark Customer Marketing Director; and Lori Willis, Schnuck Markets Director of Communications.

“Every day is an adventure when you have kids,” says Jana Collier, Kimberly-Clark Customer Marketing Director. “Through the HUGGIES SUPREME/Winnie-the-Pooh sweepstakes, we have additional prizes and a second van to give away.”

Among the other prizes—available to those who successfully collect matching game pieces with Winnie-the-Pooh game cards—are jumbo packages of diapers and Walt Disney's Winnie-the-Pooh interactive software and music CD.

Game cards are available in specially marked packages of HUGGIES SUPREME diapers through December 31, 2001. To learn more, visit www.huggies.com.