

Cyber “It” Girl Vivian Livingston Shares Her Beauty Secrets And The Chance To Win A Trip To New York City

(NAPSA)—Ever wonder how some women manage to look great all day long, despite a hectic schedule and a tight budget? Vivian Livingston, the New York City cyber “It” girl whose life and times are documented on the interactive Web site vivianlives.com, is finally revealing her coveted beauty secrets.

“Being on-the-go is no excuse for looking less than your best. You never know whom you’re going to run into throughout the day. A few quick morning rituals that pamper, refresh and polish can keep any busy girl looking fabulous from day to night,” says Livingston.

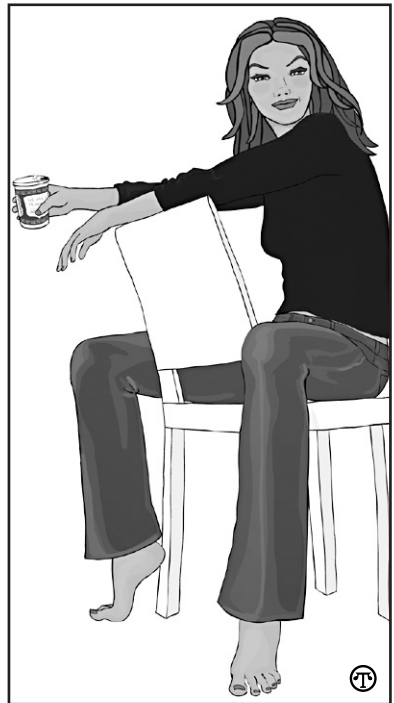

Here are some of Livingston’s quick and easy beauty tips that keep her looking great throughout the day:

- Refresh yourself with a nice, warm shower. Use products that not only help skin look great, but also have mood enhancing benefits like Ohm by Olay Body Wash scented in Citrus & Ginger to help jump-start your day, or Jasmine & Rose to calm and unwind.

- Manage your mane with products that keep hair strong and healthy. You don’t need to spend hours at the salon to achieve locks that rock. Take a few minutes in the shower to pamper your tresses with Pantene Pro-V Smooth & Sleek Shampoo and Complete Therapy Conditioner for silky, shiny and touchably soft hair in no time!

- Simplify your makeup routine by cutting down on products and creating a natural look. Using a few key products will decrease your time in front of the mirror and keep you looking your best. For a simple, sexy look follow these three easy steps: Apply bronzer to cheeks, a sheer gloss to lips and a quick coat of smudge-proof mascara to lashes.

- Apply a nail polish in pale pink or nude to toes before you slip into your favorite shoes for perfectly polished piggies. With today’s quick dry formulas, there’s
