

---

Good News Department

---

Angels In Action

(NAPSA)—There are angels among us and you may be able to help one of them get some well-deserved recognition.

The nationwide Angels in Action program salutes five children, ages 5-15, who have selflessly given back to their community through volunteering and community service.

Do you know an angel who selflessly gives back to the community through volunteering and community service?

One of last year's Angels, Jessica Zagarella (age 11), inspired her classmates to bring in over 4,000 travel-sized soaps and shampoos to donate to a local battered women's shelter.

"Children make sacrifices everyday which often go unrecognized. The Angels in Action award was created to bring attention to the generosity of our youth. Their commitment to action should inspire us all," said Michael Burandt of Georgia-Pacific Corporation.

If selected, this year's Angels will be awarded a $10,000 savings bond, a trip to NYC, and a year's supply of Angel Soft® toilet paper.

For more information about the program or to nominate someone, visit www.angelsoft.com or write to Angels in Action Rules, P.O. Box 5325, Unionville, CT 06087-5325. All nominations must be post marked by Aug. 31, 2001.