Precious Gifts For The Ones You Love

(NAPSA)—This holiday season you can give the people in your life something many really want—fine jewelry. Fine jewelry has been called the ultimate symbol of love and appreciation. With the large range of styles, colors and prices available, you can find great gifts for all your loved ones. Beautiful brooches, slim stiletto earrings and layered necklaces are some of the hottest accessories for women this season. Pair long and glistening gold chains with short strands of pearls for a fashionable look. Slim stiletto earrings, the updated chandelier, are flattering to every face shape. Clusters of beautiful brooches can be pinned on to complement the feminine, flirty clothing of the season.

Women are not the only ones wearing fine jewelry this season. Men realize fine jewelry is a masculine and attractive addition to their daily wardrobe. This season cuff links, watches, bold rings and pendants are enjoyed by many gentlemen. Designers are mixing strong materials such as titanium, rubber and stainless steel with precious metals and gemstones to create durable and fashion forward jewelry.

Now more than ever, teens are expressing their sense of style with fine jewelry. Dog tags with personalized inscriptions, sterling silver or gold initials dangling on simple layered chains, pavé diamond numbers and zodiac pendants are hot items. Teens tend to appreciate gifts that celebrate their individuality.

When taken care of, a gift of fine jewelry given to a child can be treasured for a lifetime. Cute enamel and gold pendants or earrings in fun shapes such as animals, fruits and smiley faces are adorable gifts for children. Charm bracelets make an excellent gift because they can be added onto throughout the years and you can create a special memory with each new charm.

When shopping for gifts of fine jewelry, shop at a reputable jeweler. For a list of retailers or for more fine jewelry information visit the Jewelry Information Center at www.jic.org.
