

CONTEST CORNER

Tell Your Story

(NAPSA)—It's in the bag. The way to win a new contest, acquire luxurious leather handbags and make a donation to a breast cancer awareness campaign is as easy as telling a story about your handbag.

Telling a story about a handbag could make you a published author and a winner.

The contest is sponsored by Stone Mountain, a company held in high regard for the quality of workmanship found in its leather accessories. Few handbags are said to match the longevity of this company's bags or their soft glove leather finish.

It may seem like a challenge to come up with a story that is interesting and exciting about your handbag, but the possibility of winning a collection of six leather handbags, each with a value of more than $100.00 from the 2004 collection is sure to inspire some creative thoughts.

The full value of the prizes will also be donated in the winner's name to the Stone Mountain Breast Cancer Awareness Fund.

Mail your story entry to "Stories"—Stone Mountain, 330 Fifth Avenue, Suite 400, New York, NY 10001. The winning story will be published on the company's Web site, www.stonemountainhandbags.com.
