

Personalized Gifts Are Hot This Holiday

(NAPSA)—In jewelry, personalization is the current fashion trend. Fortunately, finding a personalized gift can be both easy and affordable—in everything from keepsake jewelry to fun fashion pieces, with items to suit every taste and budget.

“Finding the perfect gift for someone special can be an overwhelming task,” says Doug Patinkin, President of Limogés Jewelry, a leading online and mail order provider of personalized jewelry. “Personalized jewelry is a very thoughtful expression, and buying it online takes all of the hassle out of holiday shopping.”

At Limogés, a team of 40 designers strives to make unique and exclusive designs. Each piece is handmade based on customer requests and is guaranteed for the life of the product. The product line includes Mothers Jewelry, Name Jewelry, Inspirational Jewelry and Family Jewelry.

For the Mothers on your list, there’s a wide selection of birthstone jewelry including the Birthstone Bracelet and the Birthstone Pendant with a Diamond Accent. Also available is the “I Love You” Ring and the Family Watch with the children’s names scripted on the face on the watch.

If your name says it all, it will be easy to choose from the many Name Necklaces and Bracelets, available in every price range. Inspirational and religious jewelry is always touching at this time of year. Footprints rings and pendants mark this important celebration, as do the Sentiment rings and bracelets.

Personalized jewelry can be a spectacular way to wish someone “Happy Holidays.”

Because family members can be the hardest to shop for, make selecting the “perfect” gift simple with an Anniversary Ring, the Family Tree Pendant, a Couples Ring or your Sisters Birthstone Ring.

The Holiday season is a very hectic time and in today’s complex world, people are busier than ever. Shopping online allows consumers to simplify their life by offering the convenience of shopping 24 hours a day, from work or from home, and still being able to give a gift that is very personal and unique. To learn more, visit the Web site at www.Limogesjewelry.com or call 1-800-253-0959 to receive a catalog.