Hook Up With A Hot Swimsuit Wardrobe

(NAPSA)—Dive in, girls. Don't just pack one suit in your vacation getaway bag! From hanging out on the beach, snorkeling in the ocean and poolside parties...you'll need a wardrobe of suits—to fit all the fun you'll be having in the sun.

You don't have to spend a fortune to get a different look! Your wardrobe can be as diverse as your activities and not have to cost a month's paycheck. Catalina swimwear has the hottest looks starting at under $13!

The "trick" to being a swimsuit model. How do swimsuit models look so picture perfect? Try these simple tricks: Choose a cut that flatters your body type. If you want to lengthen your legs, try a high-cut bottom. If you're thinking of doing some tummy hiding, vertical ribbing can minimize and create a slimming effect.

Have fun in the sand and sun. Go everywhere and make sure your suit stays with you! Try a tankini for better coverage on top and go for more coverage on the bottom—the new boy-cut bottoms are hot and super-flattering.

Mix it up! If you like one bottom and another top, make your own personal suit! Ocean Gear by Catalina has red-hot bandana prints and denim and satin solids that mix and match. Try a bandeau top and boy short bottom or a halter top and string bikini bottom.

The secret slim-down. Why throw a fit, if nothing fits, especially on those certain days (why, why on vacation?!). A sexy one-piece can be your new best friend—so consider packing a slimming, perfect tank suit such as Catalina's "Every Body" into your "Catalina" bag.

Size doesn't always matter. We all love wearing the smallest size we possibly can, but the best fitting swimsuits may be one size larger than your regular size. Don't sweat it. Tear the size label out and be way more comfortable as you dive into the pool!
