

A Bouquet Of Gift Ideas

(NAPSA)—One gift idea growing in popularity this holiday season is blooming bulbs. Baskets, planters and floral displays with blooming bulbs are a gift that can brighten spirits during the colder months. One popular source is Bloomingbulb, which pre-plants floral gifts with premium quality, properly chilled bulbs, primed to grow and bloom upon arrival. Here are a few ideas:

Floral gifts can brighten homes and brighten hearts during the colder months.

- A basket with six miniature daffodils to remind everyone spring's just around the corner.

- The Star of Holland Basket with bulbs that bloom in joyful red and white Christmas colors.

- The Amaryllis Delight, a pretty delft-inspired 6-inch planter with a premium sized Amaryllis bulb.

- A Holiday Fragrance Planter with five Hyacinths in pearly, angelic white, that fills the room with heavenly sweet fragrance.

- Paperwhite Delight with crisp, fragrant Paperwhites for the frustrated, housebound gardener.

For more information, visit www.bloomingbulb.com.