

Collector's Corner

New Realistic Toy On Road To Success

(NAPSA)—The mini-vehicle of the future is here now. Reports from youngsters and parents are that the line of speedy vehicles, called Blazin' Key Cars!, is already on the road to success.

This Chevrolet SSR concept car is making a worldwide debut at toy stores this year.

The fun mini-cars, which are not only fast, but can spin and jump, include an array of favorites from concept cars like the Pontiac GTO, Cavalier Pro Stock and Chevrolet SSR to popular muscle cars such as the '69 Camaro, to the most current models of Chevrolet Corvettes, Ford Mustangs, Dodge Vipers, Chrysler PT Cruisers and Chrysler Prowlers. In addition, there are other models, all designed by Irwin Toy, now celebrating its 75th anniversary.

More information about the new mini vehicle line is available at the Irwin Toy Web site www.irwintoy.com