

This Year, Show Dad He's Unique

(NAPSA)—There are over 35 million fathers in the United States (U.S. Census Bureau) and no two are alike. As Father's Day approaches and stores start to display Father's Day gifts, why not choose something different to show dad you know he is unique?

Sometimes however, the more different dad is, the harder it is to buy a present for him. FTD.COM has more than 700 imaginative items to choose from for every type of dad. Think about the following to decide what gift is best:

- Personality—is your dad fun-loving and outgoing or does he tend to be more serious or conservative-minded?
- Hobbies—does your dad have an existing hobby or has he mentioned that he might want to start playing golf, gardening or grilling outside more?
- Job—does your dad have an office job or is he more mobile, traveling to and fro? Maybe he'd appreciate an office gadget, travel alarm clock or car or truck accessory.
- Indulgences—what simple pleasures bring a smile to dad's face? A perfectly cooked steak, the prospect of a day spent watching a ball game or a framed photo of his family? Indulge in something that makes him smile.

Gift Ideas

The following gifts are available on FTD.COM, which offers color photos and descriptions of all items, as well as next-day delivery.

Garden enthusiasts will appreciate the Select Set Garden Tools, featuring cultivator, trowel, transplanter, gloves and gardener's soap ($26.99), offering dad everything he needs to get his garden growing.

The Home Tool Kit is a gift that any home-repair expert will love. This kit comes complete with all the essential tools for home improvement and repair, neatly organized in a convenient storage case. ($29.99).

A gift that cultivates dad's grilling talents is perfect for a "grill master." Each 18-piece set includes spatula, tongs, fork, knife, baster, skewers, corn cob holders, and grill brush scraper. ($59.99).

Any fan would love the Major League Baseball® Deluxe Game Day Gift Basket full of gifts and snacks in team colors. Baskets are also available in NFL® teams, collegiate teams, NASCAR and golf. ($79.99).

For golf enthusiasts, FTD.COM has The Universal Golf Ticket, good for one round of golf at most of the 1,700 participating golf courses (a list of courses comes with the gift; $50.00).

Father's Day is Sunday, June 17th. In 1966, President Lyndon Johnson established a permanent national observance of Father's Day to be held on the third Sunday of June every year.