

Holiday Hints

Customizing Your Holiday Greeting

(NAPSA)—This holiday season, families can save time and still create sophisticated holiday photo cards that fit their personal style by logging on to Minted.com, a new, online, custom stationery destination.

The luxe, customizable holiday cards at Minted were specially gathered through design competitions held on the site. Hundreds of the best independent brands and artists from around the world entered the competitions, and the site's visitors voted for the best designs to be sold on Minted. The site offers more than 100 unique customizable photo card templates, including a variety of designs from favorite recipes to hand-illustrated toys. All the cards are printed on matte, heavyweight cardstock that is also 100 percent recycled.

A Web site offers photo cards selected through design competitions that you can personalize with your own touches.

The site also features two fresh twists on the holiday family letter:

- The Yearline™: Showcase highlights of your family's year. Share photos and highlights from your year along a time line printed inside your card.

- The Letter Card: Minted also offers an exclusive flip-card format incorporating a letter inside a stylish photo card. To learn more, visit www.minted.com.