

ARTS IN AMERICA

Beauty And The Beach

(NAPSA)—Travelers who enjoy lapping up beach time in St. Petersburg, Florida, can also have a brush with some world-class art exhibits. A once-in-a-lifetime Beauty and the Beach: St. Petersburg on Exhibit features a range of attractions from the Americana of the National Baseball Hall of Fame to the huge glass sculptures of Dale Chihuly.

Among the exhibits are:

St. Petersburg/Clearwater, known for some of America's best beaches, also boasts art by Salvador Dali, which can be seen in the Dali Museum.

- 100 years of Dali at the Dali Museum showcasing never before seen objects.

- The Florida International Museum's Russian Odyssey with objects from the world's largest collection of Russian art at the Russian State Museum.

- St. Pete's Museum of Fine Arts showcases the largest ever exhibit of glass sculptures by world-renowned glass artist Dale Chihuly.

To learn more about the exhibits, visit www.beautyandthebeach.info.