

Bridal Basics

Weddings Require Options

(NAPSA)—If you are looking to get away when celebrating your wedding, honeymoon or anniversary or renewing your vows, look for a city with plenty of options for your taste and budget. For instance, in Pigeon Forge, Tenn., lovebirds can have a simple private wedding for family or a supersized celebration with friends, with the beautiful Great Smoky Mountains as a backdrop.

A wedding chapel provides virtually every service a couple may need for pledging or renewing its vows. Most of Pigeon Forge's 10 chapels can arrange for a minister, music, photography, videography, flowers, gown or tuxedo rentals, unity candles, cakes and more. Many wedding chapels offer customized packages perfect for any budget or taste. These all-inclusive options are popular for those looking to take the stress out of wedding planning.

A Tennessee marriage license is required to be married in Pigeon Forge. These can be purchased at the Sevier County Court Clerk's office. There is no waiting period or blood test required.

Pigeon Forge is also a popular site for honeymoons and anniversaries. From a cabin to a condo, there is lodging to accommodate any budget and any taste and certainly no shortage of entertainment for couples to enjoy while celebrating. By creating a travel package that combines lodging, entertainment and more into one expense, couples can enjoy a more relaxing honeymoon by taking care of everything ahead of time.

Located at the foothills of the Great Smoky Mountains, Pigeon Forge, Tenn., has everything for your perfect wedding and so much more. For more information about all activities in Pigeon Forge, call (800) 345-4028 toll free or visit MyPigeonForgeWeddings.com.