Gifts For Girls

(NAPSA)—There is a new “Friends & Fashion” lifestyle line of dolls that features girls’ favorite childhood characters with a sophisticated new look.

The Princess & Me brand was inspired by popular Disney Princess characters and features beautifully sculpted 18” scale dolls, doll fashions, accessories and even stunning dress-up for a slightly older fan, girls ages 5–8. Authentic details, new activities and high-end fabrics envelop girls in a royal world.

Now girls can dress their favorite Disney Princess dolls in sleepwear and ballet outfits in their signature colors and styles to bring their favorite princesses into their own world and adventures. The line resonates with girls who grew up loving all things princess and are now looking for new ways to relate to the characters as they get older. Moms love the idea that there are now products that will keep their girls’ interest in princess play longer.

Each doll wears a tiara and comes dressed in her signature ball gown. Included is an invitation for girls to become a member of the Disney Princess royal family and a small magazine with helpful princess lifestyle tips. Now available at Toys “R” Us stores nationwide and at Toysrus.com, Princess & Me is expected to be a top pick this holiday season.
