

MAKING FAMILY LIFE MORE FUN

Great Gifts For Easter

(NAPSA)—If you've been hunting for great Easter gifts, you might want to check out some of the latest family-friendly DVD releases.

The movies make wonderful presents and can be a delightful excuse to bring the whole family together for movie night. Here's a closer look at some great movies for your Easter basket:

Toy Time

In the fantastical "Mr. Magorium's Wonder Emporium," an eccentric, 243-year-old Mr. Magorium (played by Dustin Hoffman) has owned and operated the strangest, yet most wonderful toy store in the world. But when he announces that he will be handing over the reins of the incredible store to his reluctant young manager, Molly (Natalie Portman), the store throws a tantrum, turning everything extraordinary to just plain ordinary. In order to restore order to this whimsical store, Molly must learn not only to believe in her abilities but also to find the magic within.

Unexpected Adventure

In "The Seeker," Will Stanton is an average 14-year-old kid who suddenly learns he is the last of a group of ancient warriors who have dedicated their entire lives to fighting the forces of The Dark. Will quickly finds himself on the journey of a lifetime, discovering hidden magical powers, traveling through time and uncovering clues that will eventually lead him to a battle with beings of unimaginable power—with the fate of the entire world in his young hands.

Howling Good Fun

In "Dr. Dolittle: Tail to the Chief," Kyla Pratt returns as the "animal whisperer" Maya Dolittle, who discovers that being accepted into veterinary school isn't as easy as she expected. Just when she was feeling like a huge disappointment, the President of the United States asks Maya to use her special talents to work with the disobedient First Dog in order to help avert a major national crisis. With her important new assignment and lots of help from her loyal dog pal Lucky, Maya finally has a chance to impress the school-acceptance committee.

Fun Around The World

Lovable troublemaker Dennis the Menace is at it again, but this time it's on a global scale. In "Dennis the Menace: Trouble, Trouble Everywhere" the Mitchells take a much-needed family vacation abroad. As his parents try to relax, young Dennis gets caught up in a number of side-splitting adventures, including chasing crooks in Venice and kangaroos in Sydney, outrunning Mayans in South America and bulls in Spain—and even proving that erupting volcanoes in Hawaii wreak less havoc than he does.
