Families Are Having A Ball Bowling

According to Palmer Fallgren, former professional bowler and currently coach for AMF bowling centers in Florida, “Bowling is the number-one participation sport in the world. That’s because people of all ages, sizes and abilities can compete and have fun doing it.”

Many say bowling offers benefits that can't be measured on a scorecard.

That may also be why so many people believe it’s good to go bowling for fun, relaxation and other things that can’t be measured on a scorecard.

According to a recent study conducted by American Sports Data, Inc., the number of bowlers increased by 3.5 percent in 2003 and that 52 percent of frequent bowlers are females. AMF Bowling Centers offer a variety of leagues and clubs. Whether you’re seeking serious competition or recreation, you’ll find a time to bowl that fits your schedule.
