

Add Flavor And Flair To Your Next Get-Together With Tea

(NAPSA)—If you're looking for fun ways to liven up get-togethers, try using tea to sweeten the deal. Iced tea is a refreshing drink, whether it's sweetened or unsweetened and with lemon or without. It's also great as a stand-alone drink or paired with a delicious meal—and new types of tea give you plenty of serving options. For instance, Gold Peak™ is a premium ready-to-drink tea that offers classic iced tea pleasure in five flavors: sweetened, unsweetened, lemon, diet and green tea. Each variety brings back the taste of authentic, homemade iced tea, and if you want to kick up the flavor, you can try these delicious Gold Peak refreshments:

Gold Peak Sunrise

Liven up your day with this family-friendly citrus tea beverage.

3 oz Gold Peak Green Tea
3 oz Sprite®
3 oz Minute Maid® Light Lemonade
Lemon Slice
Fresh Mint Sprig

Combine in a glass half full with ice. Add lemon slice and mint sprig, stir and serve.

Gold Peak Mo-Tea-To

Enjoy Gold Peak's twist on the classic mojito when the afternoon or evening calls for something a bit more exotic.

4 oz Gold Peak Unsweetened Tea (or Gold Peak Green Tea)
3 Fresh Mint Sprigs

Tea can add flavor and flair to a get-together.

---

1 Tbsp Sugar
3 Tbsp Fresh Lime Juice
2-3 oz Club Soda
Lime Slice
Rum to taste

Using a fork, crush the mint in a tall, thin glass. Add sugar and lime juice and stir. Fill glass with ice, pour in Gold Peak iced tea and top off with club soda. Add a lime slice and any remaining mint and serve.

Here's a tip: Gold Peak comes in a carafelike glass bottle that makes a great tabletop decoration. After you enjoy the tea, just fill the bottle with water and transform it into a flower vase.
