

TAILGATING TIPS

TAILGATING IS ONE OF AMERICA'S FAVORITE PASTIMES. STATISTICS SHOW THAT MORE THAN FIFTY PERCENT OF TAILGATERS DON'T EVEN ATTEND THE GAME. WITH SO MUCH GOING ON IN THE PARKING LOT, IT CAN BE EASY TO GET CAUGHT UP MAKING FOOD AND SERVING GUESTS, BUT WITH SOME SIMPLE PLANNING, YOU TOO CAN ENJOY THE PARKING LOT PARTY. JAMIE PURVIANCE (PUR-VY-ANSE), GRILLING EXPERT AND NEW YORK TIMES BEST-SELLING AUTHOR, SAYS THERE IS NO NEED TO SHY AWAY FROM RECIPES THAT HAVE SAUCES AND MARINADES. FROM HIS NEW BOOK, "WEBER'S NEW AMERICAN BARBECUE," PURVIANCE SUGGESTS KOREAN SHORT RIB TACOS AS A GREAT GAME-DAY OPTION. THE MAJORITY OF WORK FOR THIS RECIPE INVOLVES PREPPING THE SAUCES AND MARINADES IN ADVANCE. THEN, WHEN THE GRILL IS HOT, YOU'RE FOUR TO SIX MINUTES AWAY FROM AN AMAZING ASIAN-INSPIRED CREATION THAT WILL MAKE YOU THE M-V-P OF YOUR TAILGATE PARTY.
