

Vacations Of A Lifetime

Ultimate Package Includes Unlimited Complimentary Golf And Tennis, Airline Credit And More

(NAPSA)—An unspoiled Caribbean vacation spot is providing unparalleled value for travelers planning a late summer getaway.

Four Seasons Resort Nevis, an idyllic West Indies destination, is now offering unlimited complimentary golf and tennis, plus complimentary meals for children under 12, to all guests staying a minimum of five nights between now and October 27, 2001. This special package is valid for new reservations only.

In addition, the resort is offering a $600 air credit. Guests must book through their travel counselor, who can obtain the air credit through travel partners including Go-Go Worldwide Vacations, Travel Impressions, Island Destinations and Classic Custom Vacations.

“We are working closely with our travel partners to ensure that the summer season in the Caribbean is more attractive than ever,” says Robert Whitfield, general manager, Four Seasons Resort Nevis. “This special provides an unsurpassed value for the region, where ocean breezes make Nevis far cooler than most U.S. cities in the summer.”

For resort reservations, travelers should contact their travel agent. For more information, call 800-332-3442 from the U.S. and 800-268-6282 from Canada, or visit www.fourseasons.com/nevis.

Many say a new travel package may be a wonderful way to experience the luxury and the fun to be found on a vacation in the delightful West Indies.
