“Her Secret Son” by Hannah Mary McKinnon

(NAPS)—How far would you go to protect the ones you love...when they may not be yours to protect? Tightly paced and brimming with tension, “Her Secret Son” is a heartbreakingly honest portrait of a family on the edge of disaster and a father desperate to hold on to the boy who changed his life.

When Josh's longtime partner, Grace, dies in a tragic accident, Josh begins the process of becoming legal guardian to her 7-year-old son Logan. But as he digs deeper, Josh finds many dark secrets, and that the truth about where Logan came from is more sinister than he could have imagined.

“Weapons of Peace” by Peter Johnston

A bizarre killing. A scorched atomic bomb test site. Hidden passages under Berlin. A book inspired by two true stories from the Second World War has America's top negotiator, recovering from gunshot wounds and confined to an ancient English castle, sharing the secrets of his interrupted mission with a young British nurse with a troubled past.

He urges her to help him complete his mission: Hitler has an atom bomb, and his scientists must be persuaded to undermine their own creation.

“Ruuxa & Raina” by Georgeanne Irvine

This true story of Ruuxa the cheetah and his best friend Raina the Rhodesian Ridgeback will leave readers moved and forever changed. Ruuxa, born with front legs that grew crooked, and Raina, diagnosed with terminal cancer, have a friendship like no other. They prove that miracles can and do happen when you have a best buddy by your side.

Cheetahs and dogs have been paired for decades at the San Diego Zoo. This book is geared for children but is sure to touch the hearts of adults as well.
