Simple Hacks to Make the Holidays Merrier (and Cheaper)

(NAPS)—The holidays are the most wonderful time of the year, but when the average American is spending nearly $1,000 on gifts, food, and decorations, they can also be the most stressful. For many, the pressure to create a picture-perfect holiday can stretch budgets a bit too far.

Many of today's shoppers seek advice from their favorite online influencers, sourcing creative hacks, recipes, DIY projects, and tips to keep the holidays magical without overspending. In fact, 69% of consumers say they value and actively seek out influencer recommendations. Now, questions don't need to get buried in the comments.

This December, TextNow is flipping the script on holiday stress by introducing the Holiday Hotline, a free resource to help you navigate the season, with advice a mere text away. Whether it's finding affordable gifts, creating a festive dinner on a budget, or even learning how to save on your monthly bills, the Holiday Hotline can make things simpler, cheaper, and—perhaps most importantly—more joyful.
