

Did You Know?

When large hospital systems charge high prices, employers, small businesses, working families, and communities see higher premiums, shrinking wages, and service cuts. The result, reports the National Alliance of Healthcare Purchaser Coalitions: higher healthcare costs, fewer options, and risks to patient care. Learn more at hospitalpricingabuse.org.